

BYRON WRITERS FESTIVAL 2020

PRIMARY SCHOOLS PROGRAM

3 - 7 August 2020

FREE online sessions for primary students available for streaming on-demand in the classroom. Registration essential.

In partnership with Southern Cross University

ON-DEMAND SESSIONS

Suitable for Stages 2 and 3

Meet Deborah Abela

Deborah Abela is the author of 27 books including her climate change trilogy Grimsdon, New City and Final Storm, about kids living in a climate-changed world.

Meet Felice Arena

Felice Arena is one of Australia's best-loved children's writers. His books include The Boy and the Spy, Fearless Frederic, A Great Escape, the Specky Magee and Sporty Kids series.

Meet Tristan Bancks

Tristan Bancks is the bestselling author of funny books for kids – the Tom Weekly series and Nit Boy – and award-winning crime-mystery-suspense novels, Two Wolves, The Fall and Detention.

Meet Dub Leffler

Descended from the Bigambul people of South-West Queensland, Dub Leffler has authored and/or illustrated over 11 titles including picture book Once There was a Boy and Sorry Day with Coral Vass.

Meet Kirli Saunders

2020 NSW Aboriginal Woman of the Year and Gunai Woman Kirli Saunders is an award-winning children's author, poet, teacher and artist. Her works include picture book The Incredible Freedom Machines and the poetry collection Kindred.

Registration at: byronwritersfestival.com/primary-schools