

Our Mentors

Sarah Armstrong

Genre: fiction, memoir

Location: Northern Rivers

Sarah's first novel Salt Rain (Allen & Unwin) - set in the Northern Rivers - was shortlisted for the 2005 Miles Franklin Literary Award, the Queensland Premier's Literary Award and the Dobbie Award. Sarah was formerly a journalist at the ABC where she won a Walkley Award. One of Sarah's short stories, The Long Wet, has been made into a short film and an Australian film production company has bought the rights to make a film of Salt Rain. Her latest novel, Promise, also set in the northern rivers, was released to critical acclaim in 2016.

Sarah has been teaching writing since 2004, in weekly face-to-face classes, writing retreats in Byron Bay and Bali, and via online courses.

Tristan Bancks

Genre: children's and young adult literature

Location: Northern Rivers

Tristan Bancks is a children's and teen author with a background in acting and filmmaking. His books include My Life & Other Stuff I Made Up (book two out 2014), Mac Slater Coolhunter (Australia & US), Galactic Adventures First Kids in Space and the Nit Boy series (about a kid with the worst case of nits in world history). Tristan's Young Adult novel, it's yr life was co-written via email between Byron Bay and L.A. with actress / author, Tempany Deckert. His short films as writer and director have won a number of awards and have screened widely in festivals and on TV. He is currently working on Two Wolves, a crime novel for middle-graders (March 2014) and an immersive cross-platform story for kids.

Tristan is excited by the future of storytelling and inspiring others to create. Check out Story Scrapbook, his free multimedia story brainstorming app, and chat to Tristan at www.tristanbancks.com

Jesse Blackadder

Location: Northern Rivers

Genre: historical fiction, junior fiction

Jesse Blackadder writes novels (historical and contemporary) and junior fiction, and is also a freelance journalist. She has won awards in Australia and overseas including the Benjamin Franklin prize for historical fiction, the 2011/12 Australian Antarctic Arts Fellowship and the 2012 Guy Morrison Prize for Literary Journalism. Her first novel After the Party, set in contemporary Byron Bay, made the Australian Book Review list of favourite Australian novels in 2010 and has been optioned for television. Her historical novel The Raven's Heart was set in 16th century Scotland and published by HarperCollins. Chasing the light: A novel of Antarctica, set in the 1930s and written as part of a Doctor of Creative Arts, was published by HarperCollins in 2013. She has been a writer in residence in Alaska, Antarctica, outback NSW and Byron Bay. In 2012 she began writing junior fiction aimed at 8-12 year olds. Her first junior novel Stay: The Last Dog in Antarctica came out in July 2013 and the second, Paruku: The Desert Brumby, in Feb 2014.

Jesse has run writing workshops at Sydney Writers Festival and Perth Writers Festival, and is an experienced mentor. www.jesseblackadder.com

Lisa Brockwell

Genre: Poetry

Location: Byron Bay

Lisa Brockwell lives on a rural property near Byron Bay with her husband and young son. She was runner-up in the University of Canberra Vice-Chancellor's International Poetry Prize in 2015, and has been shortlisted for the Australian Catholic University, Newcastle, Montreal International and Bridport Poetry Prizes. Her poems have been published in The Spectator, Australian Love Poems, The Australian, The Canberra Times and Best Australian Poems. Earth Girls was published by Pitt Street Poetry in 2016 and commended in the Anne Elder Award for best first collection published in Australia. Lisa runs regular workshops, performs at readings and appears at festivals and conferences both in the Byron Shire and around Australia.

www.lisabrockwell.com

Alan Close

Genre: fiction, memoir, creative non-fiction, feature writing.

Location: Northern Rivers

Over a thirty-year career, Alan Close has published books of fiction, memoir and creative non-fiction. His most recent book is Before You Met Me: A Memoir Of One Man's Troubled Search For Love. He has been a freelance feature writer for the Sydney Morning Herald and The Australian and his stories, poems and essays have been published in newspapers and literary magazines both internationally and in Australia. He edited the anthology Men Love Sex, a collection of stories by men about love, sex and relationships, has written widely on men and relationships in the national print media and was a columnist on men's issues in Good Weekend magazine. He has a MA in Creative Writing (in Creative Non-Fiction) and has been a Creative Writing tutor at Southern Cross University and QUT. His specific field of interest is in men writing about the personal but he also consults on all aspects of manuscript development and assessment, is a structural and copy editor and, working both face-to-face and online, is an enthusiastic writing mentor and teacher.

Laurel Cohn

Genre: fiction, children's books, narrative non-fiction and illustrated non-fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Laurel Cohn has been working with writers since the late 1980s, including five years with one of Australia's top literary agents and four years as Consultant Editor to the NSW Writers' Centre. As a freelance editor she works with individual writers, publishers, businesses and community organisations, as well as presenting workshops and seminars on pathways to publishing, editing, manuscript assessment and options for writers in the digital age. She is experienced in editing fiction, children's books, narrative non-fiction and illustrated non-fiction.

Jessie Cole

Genre: general fiction, literary fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Jessie Cole grew up in an isolated valley in Northern New South Wales, where she still lives in her childhood home. Her first novel, Darkness on the Edge of Town, was shortlisted for the 2013 ALS Gold Medal and longlisted for the Dobbie Literary Award. Her second novel, Deeper Water, was released in 2014 to much critical acclaim.

Her work has also appeared in many Australian publications, including Best Australian Essays, Meanjin, Kill Your Darlings, Island Magazine, The Lifted Brow, Good Weekend, Big Issue, Daily Life and the Guardian.

Jessie's memoir, Staying, was released in 2018, with Tim Winton calling it — 'A wounded, lovely, luminous book about grief, trauma and the strange healing power of words.'

Marele Day

Genres: crime, fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Marele Day is the author of four crime novels – The Life and Crimes of Harry Lavender; The Case of the Chinese Boxes; The Last Tango of Dolores Delgado and The Disappearances of Madalena Grimaldi as well as a collection of crime-comedy stories, Mavis Levack, PI. Other novels include best-selling Lambs of God, which was published to international acclaim with film rights optioned by Twentieth Century Fox; Mrs Cook: The Real and Imagined Life of the Captain's Wife; and most recently The Sea Bed.

Marele is editor of How To Write Crime and co-editor of Making Waves: 10 Years of the Byron Bay Writers Festival. She is a highly experienced speaker, teacher and mentor, and has won several awards, including the Ned Kelly Lifetime Achievement, 2008. She is currently mentor for the Northern Rivers Writers' Centre Residential Mentorship.

Garry Disher

Genre: children's writing, young adult, crime, fiction

Location: Victoria

Garry Disher is one of Australia's best-known authors. A full-time writer since 1988, he's published over 50 books: general/literary novels, crime thrillers, story collections, fiction for children and teenagers, anthologies (as editor), creative writing handbooks and Australian History textbooks. His award-winning crime novels have earned an international reputation, with editions published in the USA, England, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Italy, Spain and Hungary. Many of his children's and Young Adult titles continue to be studied in schools. The Bamboo Flute is regarded as a modern classic and has never been out of print, and The Divine Wind has sold over 100,000 copies in Australian and overseas editions. His writers' handbook Writing Fiction is widely used in schools, TAFEs and universities.

Russell Eldridge

Genre: Fiction, Journalism, feature writing, media training, proof-reading

Location: Northern Rivers

Russell Eldridge is an author, journalist and media trainer. He wrote the critically acclaimed Harry Mac, a novel set in the darkest days of apartheid. Harry Mac won the Varuna Litlink Unpublished Manuscript Award, and was named Book of the Month on Booktopia. Russell is an award-winning journalist and former newspaper editor, who has worked in South Africa and Australia, on the Johannesburg Star and the Sydney Morning Herald. He has experience of hard news writing, features and long-form journalism, and has tutored and guest-lectured in journalism at Southern Cross University. Russell has won several media awards, including a Walkley Award Commendation, Northern NSW Journalist of the Year, Sir Harry Budd award for Country Journalism and a Special Merit Award for South African Sports Writing. Russell also conducts media training for journalists and Australian organisations. He is a founding member of the Byron Writers Festival, and regularly chairs panel discussions, as well as interviewing visiting writers. He has also chaired at the Ubud Writers and Readers Festival.

Melaina Faranda

Genre: children's, young adult and general fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Melaina Faranda is the author of 35 Young Adult and Children's books, published nationally and internationally by Random House, Allen & Unwin, Pan Macmillan, Omnibus Scholastic, Pearson, Heinemann, Macmillan Ed, and Rigby etc. Having worked intensively with twenty professional editors over a decade enables Melaina to swiftly get to the heart of your manuscript and offer feedback, advice and specific suggestions that can radically improve your story in record time.

Jim Hearn

Genre: Life writing, fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Jim Hearn is the author of High Season: a memoir of heroin and hospitality, which was published by Allen & Unwin in 2012. He also published the novella River Street with Text in 2012, which won the inaugural Griffith Review Novella Competition. He has had three other pieces published with Griffith Review – one essay and two short stories. Jim also won the New Philosopher Writers Award in 2014 for his short story, Shanghai Baby.

During the 1990's, Jim worked on the screenplay for the feature film Chopper (2000) and wrote and directed four short films that screened on SBS.

As an educator, Jim holds a PhD in Cultural Studies from UTS and teaches Creative Writing and Cultural Studies at Southern Cross University, Lismore. He has supervised 10 Honours year projects where students write a 25, 000-word thesis, most of which have involved students writing an extended work of prose.

I genuinely enjoy working with people on their creative writing projects, whatever form their writing takes, and wouldn't do it if I didn't feel I had something positive and substantial to add to their best efforts. - Jim Hearn

Nette Hilton

Genre: fiction, children's and young adult

Location: Tweed Coast

Nette Hilton is a multi-award winning author of many short-listed and translated books, including Proper Little Lady, The Web, Sprite Downberry and The Innocents (which is currently being developed for film). Her work is available throughout the world – listed as White Raven award recipient in Bologna – and she has recently undertaken a trip to America to meet with publishers there. She is a sought-after mentor with the ASA and primary and secondary schools where she runs workshops, talks and information sessions for children, young adults and adults. Most recently she has worked in mentorship with Flinders University in South Australia.

Zacharey Jane

Genres: fiction, childrens' picture books, literary fiction

Location: Northern Rivers

Zacharey Jane is the author of the acclaimed novel The Lifeboat (UQP), published internationally and short-listed for the Barbara Jeffris Award, and the children's picture book Tobias Blow (illustrated by Rosalie Street), which is included on the Premier's Reading List. Zacharey's background includes fifteen years in the film and television industry, advertising and fashion magazines, and several successful exhibitions of her paintings in Sydney galleries. She is also a high school English and History teacher.

Zacharey is adept at working with novice and junior writers, helping them find their voice and hone their ideas, to create a fertile seed from which their story can grow. Her background in the visual arts also makes her ideal to work with writers wanting to combine images and words in picture books, for adults or children.

Anneli Knight

Genre: Freelance journalism, non-fiction, marketing.

Location: Northern Rivers

Anneli Knight is a contributing feature writer to the Sydney Morning Herald and The Age newspapers and has written for travel magazines including Australian Geographic Outdoor, Conde NasteTraveler and online at Holiday Goddess. Before going freelance she was a staff journalist at Sydney Morning Herald and worked in features, general news, foreign desk, arts and business sections. She studied a Master of Arts in Journalism at University of Technology, Sydney, and later taught journalism and media law at UTS.

For the past six years she's been making the most of the freelance lifestyle living and writing between Melbourne and the Kimberley and has now planted her feet in the Northern Rivers.

Zanni Louise

Genre: Picture books, early readers, junior fiction

Location: Byron Shire

Zanni Louise is passionate about writing quality books for children, making kids laugh, and inspiring people to write their own stories. Based in Alstonville, Zanni has collaborated with award-winning illustrators to create four picture books, including the popular Errol series. She's written a 6-book independent reader series called Tiggly and the Magic Paintbrush and her first junior fiction series Stardust School of Dance is out mid 2019.

Zanni's books have been described as quirky, curious and funny, and are sold in 19 foreign territories. She's been twice listed in the CBCA Notables, and her book Archie and the Bear was selected for the highly prestigious international children's catalogue: The White Ravens.

Zanni teaches 'Writing Picture Books' and 'Writing Chapter Books' through the Australian Writers Centre. She also runs her own course through various writing centres and festivals throughout Australia. Zanni has also workshopped with thousands of kids in schools around Australia, and is one of the passionate StoryBoard authors working with Byron Writers Festival. She has mentored new and established writers for a number of years. Several of Zanni's clients have gone onto secure publishing deals. www.zannilouise.com

Laura Shore*Genre: poetryLocation: Northern Rivers

Laura Shore has taught composition, literature and poetry at several colleges as well as offering creative writing courses privately since 1980. Her young adult novel, The Sacred Moon Tree, Bradbury Press, NY, 1986, was nominated for the Washington Irving Children's Book Award. Her poetry has appeared in literary magazines and anthologies in the US, New Zealand, Italy and Australia.

In 1996, she initiated the Dangerously Poetic reading series. This evolved into a community press (www.dangerouslypoetic.com) which has published nine books. Her collection, Breathworks, was launched at the Byron Writers Festival in 2002 by Dorothy Porter. Winner of the 2009 FAW John Shaw Nielson Award and the 2006 CJ Dennis "Open Poetry" Literary Award, she was chosen by the Poet's Union for the 2003 Poets on Wheels Tour. Laura's poems have twice been broadcast on Radio National's Poetica. Water over Stone, her latest collection, won IP Picks Best Poetry 2011 and was published by Interactive Press, Brisbane.

Jennifer St George*Genre: Commercial RomanceLocation: Northern Rivers & Gold Coast

Jennifer St George is a best-selling romance author whose sexy stories feature courageous, career-minded heroines, strong heroes in glamorous international settings. She has seven books published with Penguin Books Australia. Her story, Her Small Town Christmas Wish, was published in the Hot Christmas Night anthology with six other Australian and NZ authors. Jennifer's third novel, The Love Deception, was nominated for 2013 ARRA Awards in the Favourite Short Category Romance section and The Billionaire's Passionate Revenge was nominated for the same award in 2015. She spent the first 20 years of her career in corporate marketing and management consulting roles. She won a clutch of awards including Outstanding Sunshine Coast Business Woman of the Year and the Public Relations Institute of Australia Golden Target Award. She has a graduate business degree and completed an MBA where she was presented with the Rupert Murdoch Fellowship.

Jennifer is a past Vice-President of Romance Writers of Australia and the past Chair of the Byron Writers Festival Board. She currently teaches public relations and creative writing at Bond University.

Lisa Walker*Genres: women's fiction, general fiction, romantic comedyLocation: Northern Rivers

Lisa is the author of the romantic comedies Sex, Lies and Bonsai (HarperCollins, 2013) and Liar Bird (HarperCollins, 2012) and the ABC Radio National play, Baddest Backpackers (2008). She is an award winning short story writer and her story Blossom appeared in the Review of Australian Fiction in 2012. She was a recipient of the Varuna HarperCollins Award in 2011, leading the publication of her first novel and has almost completed a masters in creative writing at the University of Queensland where she is writing a comedy about climate change. She has previously worked as a manuscript assessor, freelance journalist, wilderness guide, tertiary lecturer and environmental communicator. www.lisawalker.com.au