

Byron Writers Festival Schools Days

9 — 11 August, 2021

COVID-Safety Notice:

- Byron Writers Festival Schools Days will be operating under the NSW Public Health Order in place at the time of the event.
- Teachers will be responsible for keeping a list of all participating students and will be required to share this information with NSW Health should the need arise.
- Students experiencing flu-like symptoms should not attend.
- Venues may be operating at restricted capacity with social distancing measures in place.
- For the health & safety of all, signage & sanitising stations are set up throughout the venues.
- We ask that you adhere to all COVID guidelines while attending the event.

2021 Ticketing Policy

1. The Festival may amend the Schools program at any time without notice, unavoidable program changes will be advised on the day.
2. If the event is unable to proceed on the advertised date or location due to intervening circumstances such as an act of God, state of emergency (e.g. bushfires or floods), public health emergency (e.g. pandemics), travel warnings (e.g. travel restrictions or advice to not travel) and government directives (e.g. forced venue closures or mass gatherings restrictions) , Byron Writers Festival reserves the right to reschedule the session, and offer a credit or exchange to the rescheduled date, or offer a refund request window of 28 days.
3. If a student or teacher cannot attend Festival events due to having flu-like symptoms, please contact the Festival to arrange a ticket exchange or credit. If an exchange or credit cannot be facilitated a refund will be given.
4. If a student or teacher cannot attend the Festival due to travel and quarantine restrictions, or border closures, please contact the Festival, where possible, 7 days prior to the event to arrange a ticket exchange or credit – and if that can't be facilitated a refund will be given.
